AN EXPLANATION OF YOUR FIRST BILL

The activation fee. The cost of the month's access until the end of the month (prorated). The cost of next month's access according to your account. The cost of the Service Plan. Other applicable charges.

WHAT HAPPENS IS YOU PAY LATE?

Bills not paid by the specified date on the bill may be subject to a late fee. Bills not paid by the suspension date of the next month will be disconnected from the system. Service will be reconnected only after payment of the full amount due plus a reconnection fee (if account has expired past 30 days) to cover the large administrative expenses of this deactivation/reactivation process. Customers who pay late will very likely lose access for those days. We do not make exceptions for this. If you mailed a check late and found your account suspended, you must provide a credit card for instant reactivation. The check we receive will serve as a credit towards the following period. Communications that the check is in the mail will be ignored. Unpaid accounts past 30 days will result in account suspension. Unpaid accounts after 60-days will result in account termination. Suspension results in deactivating your account until payment has been received. Termination results in completely deleting your record. Your username and email will be lost. Suspension generally lasts a month or so until the system administrators 'clean up' these accounts, meaning termination. There is no set period for such maintenance. To reactivate a terminated account, you must apply for an account like you did originally, and you must repay an activation fee. Customers who reactivate suspended accounts will ultimately pay for the period the account was suspended up to 30 days, even though you were not able to access the account as an additional penalty for paying late. Customers who fail to pay for services rendered will be referred to a collection agency.

REACTIVATING YOUR ACCOUNT

PTCI incurs significant costs for deactivating and reactivating accounts. Paying late or with bad credit cards costs us in a large variety of ways. If your account has been suspended you can call billing at 1-800-652-2556 or (580) 338-2556, during regular hours to provide credit card information. If your account has been terminated for three years and your billing information remains the same you may not have to reapply. If your account has been terminated for three years and your billing has changed, you must reapply for your account as you did originally. If your account has been suspended 30 days past your expiration date, you will incur a reactivation fee.

INSUFFICIENT OR BAD CHECKS

Returned checks will result in instant account suspension. To reactivate, you will incur a check charge and a reconnect fee. We may also require that you pay by cash for future payments.

TAXES

Except for the amount, if any, of state and local tax stated on the front page of this document, the prices set forth herein are exclusive of any amount for federal, state and/or local excise, sales, use, property, retailer's occupation or similar taxes. If any such excluded tax is determined to be applicable, then you shall pay to PTCI the full amount of any such tax by the specified date on the bill.

CREDIT INFORMATION AND DEPOSITS

You consent to PTCI's disclosure of account information to or from credit reporting agencies, credit bureaus, private credit reporting associations, or to or from other providers of services. At any time, PTCI may require you to make a suitable deposit to be held by PTCI, and you hereby grant PTCI a security interest in such deposit, to secure the payment of all sums due hereunder as well as the performance of all other obligations you may have to PTCI whether now existing or hereafter arising, interest in the amount of that rate required by state law will be paid on your cash deposit for the period during which is held by PTCI. Upon termination of service, PTCI may apply your deposit (and any interest accrued thereon) against your bill or any other amount you owe PTCI.
