ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

The following Terms and Conditions govern all use of ptsi.net services. ptsi.net reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions from time to time. Continued use of said services from and after the date of any revision shall be deemed full and complete acceptance of all Terms and Conditions and applicable fees and all changes and/or modifications thereto.

Internet service is provided by ptsi.net (hereinafter "Provider") for the use and enjoyment of authorized users (hereinafter "User") only. Said services may be used for lawful purposes only.

The User certifies that he or she is at least 18 years of age.

Payment by User for subscribed services shall be made monthly in advance. Overage hours when applicable shall be computed and billed to User in arrears. Provider reserves the right to change fees for services and to add or delete services at any time. You may not be logged in more than once per account (for regular accounts). In the event that you do, your account will be suspended, and you will have to call us to reactivate it. You will be double billed for double logins.

Provider's service, including dial-up and broadband access, is limited to authorized User only, is non-transferable and may not be re-sold. The login ID, password and e-mail address is assigned exclusively to User. Providing User's login ID and/or password to unauthorized persons is a violation of these Terms and Conditions. Provider assumes no responsibility for access to User's account by unauthorized persons.

Provider does not warrant that its service will be uninterrupted or error free nor does it warrant any information, software or other material accessible is free of "viruses," "corruption's" or other harmful components. Provider, its employees, its affiliates and its contractors shall be held harmless for any lost profits or direct, indirect, incidental, special, punitive or consequential damages resulting from reliance upon the use of Provider's software or Provider's services.

User understands that transfer, reproduction, distribution or re-distribution of information, software or other material protected by copyright or other proprietary right, without obtaining permission of the copyright owner or rightholder, is prohibited.

User understands that the Internet contains unedited materials, some of which may be considered offensive to User. User accesses such materials at User's own risk. Provider neither exerts control over nor assumes any responsibility for User's access to any such materials.

User agrees to abide by provider's Acceptable use policy.

Provider acknowledges User's privacy with respect to electronic-mail (e-mail) transmissions. User acknowledges, however, Provider retains the right both to monitor its services electronically from time to time to assure compliance with these Terms and Conditions and to disclose any information necessary to comply with any law or regulation.

This agreement is subject and subordinate to all Rules and Regulations of any and all applicable governmental regulatory authorities.

In the event, User violates these Terms and Conditions, Provider reserves the right to suspend or discontinue access to all or part of its service, without notice.

ptsi.net user accounts are for individual users and the account holder therefore agrees not to share the password of the account. The account holder acknowledges that ptsi.net may terminate the account after appropriate notification if the account holder does not comply.

ptsi.net user web pages are for personal use only. They may not be used for the advertising or promotion of a product, good, service, or company.

Any use of ptsi.net resources that disrupts the normal use of the system for other users is deemed unacceptable. Such unacceptable uses include, but are not limited to, the following:

>Using ptsi.net for illegal purposes.

>Using ptsi.net to transmit threatening, obscene or harassing materials.

>Using ptsi.net to interfere with or to disrupt network user, services or equipment. Disruptions include, but are not limited to, distribution of unsolicited advertising, propagation of computer viruses or worms, and using the network to make unauthorized entry to any other machine accessible via the network.

>Using ptsi.net to post a single article or advertisement to more than ten (10) Usenet or other newsgroups, forums, email mailing lists or other similar group or lists; to post to any Usenet or other newsgroup, forum, email mailing list or other similar group or list articles which are off-topic according to the charter or other owner-published FAQ or description of the group or list; or to send unsolicited mass emailing to more than twenty-five (25) email users, if such unsolicited emailing provoke complaints from recipients.

>Using ptsi.net to transmit any material in violation of any U.S., state, or local regulation which may include but is not limited to copyrighted material, threatening, obscene, libelous, or defamatory material, or material protected by trade secret.
